

Worldwide Film Debut at Boston Film Festival

NEW Movie about Russell's Garden Center! Available to watch in your own home September 22-September 26.

Russell's has been featured in a full-length documentary film called "Growing Through Covid-19". This is an emotional yet uplifting story about the struggles, support and love of a family business. It beautifully shows how their employees and customers rallied around them to help find happiness during the 2020 pandemic.

Professionally filmed with an original music score, the film features Russell's employees, loyal customers and local gardens.
